Gruen Advisors GmbH today announced a strategic agreement with listérus & partners Capital Advisors (LPCA) which will focus on cross-border M&A advisory and investment management, sourcing and effecting transactions between Sweden and other Scandinavian markets.

Both companies will provide cross-border M&A advisory services as well as strategic advice.

"I have spent my career developing the relationships and expertise necessary to catalyze new growth opportunities by connecting the business and cultural interests of Sweden with the rest of the world," said Christian Listérus, Partner of LPCA. "I am so privileged to join forces through this strategic cooperation agreement with Gruen Advisors. Together we offer a unique combination of local access and expertise, global reach and world class product knowledge which form the cornerstone of our cross-border M&A offerings."

"This strategic cooperation initiative with LPCA facilitates our clients' access to the Scandinavian market," said Dr. Martin Clark Grün, Managing Partner of Gruen Advisors. "It also makes significant headway towards Gruen Advisors' goal of further internationalizing our business. We are especially pleased to join with such prominent and highly respected partners as LPCA and Christian Listérus."
